

Qualified Expert Witness in State ICWA Cases

Current Topics in Tribal Governance

TG 250 – 702 CRN 36459

Instructor: Prof. Debra Dzijúksuk O’Gara

Department of Tribal Governance

Thursdays

February

15, 22, 29

March 7 & 21

2024

Online

Distance Course

This Course will focus on the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) requirement for the state to provide Qualified Expert Witnesses (QEW) in certain proceeding of a child welfare case. Students will learn the history of this requirement, the role of a QEW, including writing a report and testifying in court. Student will also learn the history of the ICWA and begin to be familiar with the BIA guidelines.

To Register go to UA Online or <https://www.uaf.edu/reg/register.php>

For Questions or More information

Call 907-4745826 or email uaf-tribal@alaska.edu

